

What does discipleship mean to you?

- Love / serve
- Growing in love, knowledge, and service of Jesus Christ
- Reaching out to others; showing my faith through my actions
- Reaching out to others in love and sharing the Gospel with them. Doing God's work in the world
- Following Jesus and leading others by example
- Following Jesus - walking with each other in Christ. Being God's people by God's grace living in Christ.
- Serving the Lord and spreading the Gospel.
- Going in the wrong direction sometimes to share my understanding of God's love.
- It means following in the steps of Jesus wherever it may lead you and to whoever it leads.
- Sharing the unchanging love of God with all creatures.
- Following Christ's way. Witness to others through your life.
- Learning to love.
- Walking the walk of Christ wherever that may be.
- Following Jesus in daily living - his example.
- Reaching out.
- Connecting people to each other and to ministry.
- Be the one who invites and feeds.
- Reaching out to others - the unchurched with the love of God.
- Following Jesus into the world to serve; to bring the kingdom of God to the poor, the least; to proclaim the good news that nothing separates us from the love of God.
- Being my sister's and father's keeper.
- Living and walking behind and beside Christ and others.
- Living on Christ. Hospitality. Love and Service in gratitude to God.
- Faithful service.
- Sharing and listening to God's story and blending our stories to share God's love, grace, and hope in the world.
- Love God and neighbor.
- It means leaving my worldly worries, my materialistic emotions behind; picking up my sword (Bible) and walking in the footsteps of Christ. It means showing the world (every single person) God's love, mercy, and compassion, all for his glory and in his name. It means there's room for error along the path as long as my heart is fixed on Jesus and my wrongs are corrected.
- Sitting at the feet of Jesus, learning, growing, changing in order: to go out to teach others, to impact the lives of others. (Mentored to Mentor)
- Discipleship for me means living what I believe.
- Using my gifts to help others. Growing in faith and in these gifts.
- Loving sharing with all other creatures on earth. Walking with.
- Listening, discerning, growing, learning, sharing from God, with God, for God.
